The CPI is an effective diagnostic tool used to gain insight into an organization's performance in 4 key areas: Direction, Operations, People, and Engagement. Overall, these areas are comprised of 12 dimensions that allow us to to better understand the relative strengths and weaknesses of an organization.